2. General

- 2.1 These Terms and Conditions relate to the subscription of Shares in the Fund and the applicant(s) agree(s) to be bound by these Terms and Conditions and the Instrument of Incorporation of the Fund and the Prospectus.
- 2.2 The Fund and the Administrator reserve the right to reject any application in whole or in part which is not completed in full and supported by the documentation requested and cleared monies, or for any other reasons at its sole discretion. Failure to attach all documentation requested may result in a delay in the transaction being processed.
- 2.3 The Fund and the Administrator reserve the right to request additional information and documentation, including but not limited to, translations and certifications relating to such additional requests from the applicant(s) and existing Investors in compliance with the legislation and regulations in force from time to time.
- 2.4 These Terms & Conditions are governed by English Law. If there is any conflict between these Terms and Conditions and the ISA Regulations or other UK legislation affecting your account the ISA Regulation and/or other legislation will apply.
- 2.5 Applicants resident outside of the UK must satisfy themselves that under local laws they are eligible to hold the relevant investment.
- 2.6 Subject to the clauses in section 10, Shares and Units are bought and sold at the next Valuation Point following receipt of a signed Application Form or other acceptable instruction.

3. Identity Verification & Anti-Money Laundering

- 3.1 All applicants agree to conform to the UK anti-money laundering laws and regulations and understand that from time to time the Administrator may need to update its procedures in line with updated law and regulations.
- 3.2 In compliance with applicable anti-money laundering rules and regulations, the Administrator will carry out identity checks on all applicants and beneficial owners using credit referencing or fraud protection agencies. Applicants also authorise the Administrator to undertake further similar searches at regular intervals to ensure our continued compliance with our regulatory obligations.
- 3.3 A record of all searches performed will be retained by the Administrator.
- 3.4 Further identification documents may be required from the applicant(s) or existing Investor(s) before an application can be processed or redemption proceeds paid out.
- 3.5 Identity verification documentation will only be accepted if certified by; an Intermediary authorised and regulated by the FCA or a Solicitor registered with the UK Law Society. Exceptions will be made for applicants outside of the UK, however please contact Maitland Institutional Services Limited for details on the documentation required.
- 3.6 Redemption proceeds and income distributions will only be made to customers once all beneficiaries' identity has been verified.

4. Joint Applications

- 4.1 If more than one person is named on an Application Form, all applicants will be considered as joint applicants. As such, the Administrator will only accept further instructions signed by all of the applicants.
- 4.2 Instructions not signed by all joint account holders will be rejected, unless authority has been received by the Administrator, signed by all holders, specifically authorising the Administrator to accept individual signatures.
- 4.3 The different joint holders shall determine between them, by separate agreement, the rights of any joint account holder on the account. The Administrator may at any time request each joint account holder to inform it about this determination. Under no circumstances can the knowledge that the Administrator has about the distribution of assets between the account holders of a joint account be used against the Administrator in any way.
- 4.4 The applicants hereby confirm that upon the death of any of them, this individual signatory power will continue to be in force, and both the Fund and the Administrator may rely and act without liability on any instruction, including an instruction for the transfer or redemption of the Shares, signed by the survivor(s) unless the Administrator has been informed in writing of the contrary.
- 4.5 Unless otherwise advised in writing, all notices and communications shall be addressed and all payments directed to the first applicant specified in section 1 of the present Application Form (the "First Applicant").

5. Power of Attorney & Notification of Death

- 5.1 Where a Power of Attorney form is required, a certified copy (signed by an acting Solicitor) must be provided. Where you authorise another person to act on your behalf, you will be responsible for their actions or omissions as if they were your own.
- 5.2 The Administrator will, at its discretion, accept applications made by an investor's legal representative, where the investor is not able to complete the Application Form for reason of mental disorder, incapacity, physical disability, illness or old age. The appointed person must provide the original or certified copy of the formal document authorising the person to act on behalf of the investor and any other documentation reasonably requested.
- 5.3 We require a formal notification of death of an Investor. Once an original or certified copy of a Death Certificate has been received the Investors account will be marked as inactive and if held within an ISA, the tax wrapper will be removed.
- 5.4 The proceeds of the Investors holdings will only be disinvested and paid out once an original or certified Grant of Probate (or equivalent) has been received along with instruction from the executors.
- 5.5 If a Primary Holder on a jointly held account dies the next named holder becomes the new Primary Holder.
- 5.6 Any distributions received on holdings between the Administrator receiving formal notification of death (e.g. a Death Certificate) and receiving the Grant of Probate (or equivalent), will be held in a segregated Client Money Account, regardless of whether there was a standing instruction in place to pay distributions out to a designated account prior to death.

6. ISA Subscriptions (if applicable)

- 6.1 ISA applicants must be 18 years or over and all investment subscriptions made now and in the future must belong to the applicant.
- 6.2 Applicants must be resident in the United Kingdom for tax purposes or, if not so resident, either perform duties which, by virtue of Section 28 of Income Tax (Earnings & Pensions) Act 2003 (Crown employees serving overseas), are treated as being performed in the United Kingdom, or are married to, or in a civil partnership with, a person who performs such duties. The Administrator must be notified if the applicant ceases to be so resident or to perform such duties or be married to, or in a civil partnership with, a person who performs such duties.
- 6.3 ISA applicants are required to declare their residency in the Application Form, if you are unsure of your residency status we recommend that you contact your local tax office or your financial adviser. If this is not an option you should contact the HMRC Residency Helpline on 0300 200 3300.
- 6.4 If the investor is uncertain of their residence position they cannot make an ISA application until they can give an assurance that they are UK resident in the year in which the application is made. The ISA must not be opened on a provisional basis.
- 6.5 All ISA applications must be made in writing and provide a valid and complete Application Form. ISA applications can only be made in the name of a single investor.
- 6.6 It is the Applicant's responsibility to ensure they do not subscribe more than the overall subscription limit in total to a cash ISA and a stocks and shares ISA in the same tax year; Maitland Ltd only offers stocks and shares ISA's.
- 6.7 It is the Applicant's responsibility to ensure they do not subscribe to another stocks and shares ISA in the same tax year with another ISA Manager.
- 6.8 If you wish to transfer an existing ISA with another ISA Manager to Maitland, you must complete both an ISA Application Form and an ISA Transfer Authority which will be sent onto your old ISA Manager.
- 6.9 Maitland may make any claims of tax in respect of ISA investments on behalf of the investor.

7. Junior ISA Accounts (if applicable)

- 7.1 Maitland would not normally accept investment from applicants under the age of 18. An exception to this is investments made into fund(s) within a Junior ISA wrapper, where the fund(s) accept such investment.
- 7.2 A Junior ISA can only be opened by a person aged 16 and over. This can be the child themselves, if they are aged between 16 and 18, or a person with parental responsibilities, either would be known as the registered contact. There can only be one registered contact who could be one of the child's natural parents, someone who is legally responsible for the child or the child themselves if aged between 16 and 18.
- 7.3 Certified proof of the registered contact's legal guardianship must be submitted to the Administrator in writing. The legal guardian must provide a certified copy of their valid ID card/passport for the legal guardian.
- 7.4 When the child reaches their 16th birthday the Administrator can mark them as the registered contact and accept investment instructions from then as if they were 18 years old. The Administrator will only do this once formal permission has been received from the current registered contact, i.e. the legal guardian.

7.5 Junior ISAs will be automatically become a Stocks and Shares ISA when the child reaches their 18th birthday. However, the Administrator must be sent a new Application Form signed by the Investor. Until the new Application Form has been received transactions will not be processed.

- Any prospective purchaser for value of our business and their legal, financial and other advisers

9.4.4 If you have provided us with the Personal Data of a third party, you will have obtained all necessary consents from those third parties to enable us to hold and process their Personal Data in accordance with the terms of this section.

9.4.5 We may disclose your information to organisations for compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

9.4.6 We may contact you, or any persons associated with this application, to request further verification with respect to our anti-money laundering requirements. If you do not submit appropriate verification documents for all persons named on the form, we may return the full application to you unprocessed. We reserve the right to use electronic checking services in order to satisfy our anti-money laundering requirements over and above the documents/payment cheques you may provide.

9.5 With the exception of the above provisions, we will not pass on your details to any other third party without your permission, but we will disclose information concerning your investment to your intermediary if you have provided details of one.

9.6 We may engage service providers who may have access to and may use your information to provide these services on our behalf. We, or third party service providers, may outsource certain activities to parties (including our group companies) based outside the European Economic Area (EEA) for the administration and servicing of your investments. In such cases, it may be necessary for us to transfer your personal data outside of the EEA. Contracts will be put in place to ensure that the service providers protect your information in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 or any legislation that may be enacted to replace the Regulation.

9.7 Your rights:

9.7.1 You have the right to ask us about the personal information we hold about you, including a description of that information, the purposes for which it is used and with whom it is shared.

9.7.2 You have the right to access your information at any time to check whether it is accurate and up-to-date and you should write to us if you wish to do so.

9.7.3 You can find out more details concerning your rights and our duties under the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 or any legislation that may be enacted to replace the Regulation by visiting the website of the Information Commissioner at www.ico.org.uk.

9.8 A copy of our privacy policy and your rights as a data subject can be found on our website at <https://www.maitlandgroup.com/about-us/governance/gdpr-compliance/>

9.9 How to contact us:

If you have any queries about the use of your personal information, please contact us by e-mail to dataprotectionofficer@maitlandgroup.com, or by post to Hamilton Centre, Rodney Way, Chelmsford, Essex, CM1 3BY.

8. Indemnity

8.1 The applicant(s) accepts that, if they send us instructions by facsimile or a scanned image sent via email they may not be clear and there is a danger of them being misinterpreted. The applicant(s) therefore accept that they will be liable for any loss, claim or expense that the Fund or the ACD, or any of their delegates, may incur through reliance on faxed and or scanned instructions. However, this will not apply if the Fund, the ACD, Registrar or their delegates, is deliberately at fault or if they are negligent.

8.2 The ACD and or Registrar accept responsibility to the applicant(s) if it is deliberately at fault or if it is negligent. However, the ACD and or the Registrar's liability will be restricted to losses which result directly from its fault or negligence. The ACD and Registrar will not be liable for loss of business, loss of goodwill, loss of opportunity or loss of profit, or any losses that the Administrator could not reasonably have anticipated when the applicant(s) made the application.

8.3 Where an application form is submitted by facsimile or scanned via email:

8.3.1 The applicant specifically authorises the Fund, the ACD and Registrar to act upon instructions received by facsimile or scanned image sent via email and telephone. This facsimile, email and telephone authority will remain in force until notice in writing of its termination is received by either the ACD or Registrar and shall apply to all dealings and transactions between the Administrator and the applicant in relation to the Fund, provided that it does not apply to notifications of change of name, address, death or transfers and the use of powers of attorney; in such circumstances original/certified documentation must be sent to the ACD and Registrar.

8.3.2 The Fund, ACD and Registrar are entitled in their absolute discretion to refuse to comply with any facsimile and scanned instruction which is, in their opinion, unclear or ambiguous. Reasonable efforts will however be made to contact the person issuing the facsimile to clarify the issue.

8.3.3 The applicant agrees to send the original application form to the Administrator. For redemption request forms submitted via Calastone, EMX or other such electronic method; facsimile; scanned and sent via email; or Telephone, the ACD and or Registrar will only pay out the redemption proceeds upon receipt of the original signed renunciation form, which will be sent to the registered address along with a contract note. Or alternatively, if a coverall is in place before the deal has been placed.

9. Data Protection

9.1 Maitland Institutional Services Limited is a registered Data Controller and can be contacted via e-mail, dataprotection@maitlandgroup.com or by post to Hamilton Centre, Rodney Way, Chelmsford, Essex, CM1 3BY.

9.2 In relation to your subscription, Maitland Institutional Services Limited will use your information to open, administer and when appropriate, close your Account. We may record and use any information held about you in the course of our relationship with you, for the below mentioned purposes. We will share information about you with other members of the Maitland Group of companies.

9.3 Personal data will be kept securely and we will treat your information as private and confidential. Your details, including dealings with us, will not be disclosed to anyone except where we, or any third party acting on our behalf, are legally compelled or permitted to do so.

9.4 The Law gives you the right to know what information we hold about you. In addition, the Law sets out rules to make sure that this information is handled properly.

9.4.1 We will collect your Personal Data when you apply to invest. Your Personal Data will be used by us to set up, administer and otherwise provide services to you in respect of your investment. We will act as the Data Controller, as defined by Law. If we reject your application for an investment, or you choose to cancel it, your Personal Data may be held on our records for up to 7 years before it is deleted, in line with the Law. When your investment is closed, we will keep any Personal Data for as long as we are required by the FCA and HMRC.

9.4.2 We will keep your Personal Data confidential and will not disclose it unless it is lawful for us to do so.

9.4.3 We may disclose your Personal Data (and sensitive personal data) to:

- Your professional advisors;
- Other companies within the Maitland Group (of which we are a part), or their respective sub-contractors present or future;
- Other companies and suppliers we engage to process data on our behalf for the purpose of administering and servicing of your Investments
- Organisations for compliance with legal and regulatory requirements
- Reputable identity checking agencies
- Our Accountants and/or Auditors
- Our legal advisers

10. Settlement

10.1 Payment in respect of any purchase contract instructed by the Intermediary must be received by Maitland on or before midday on Settlement Day. Maitland will be entitled to cancel, in whole or in part, any contract in respect of which a payment is overdue, with any shortfall being covered by the Investor.

10.2 The Administrator does not normally accept payments from third parties, other than transfers in from other financial institutions and reserves the right to request verification of the source of funds and evidence of identity as required before accepting them.

10.3 The ACD may charge £50 each time a trade is not fulfilled by the end of the business day on the settlement date. The ACD also reserves the right to apply interest charges at 4% above the Bank of England Base Rate on the value of any settlement not received by the end of the business day on the settlement date.

10.4 Amounts that total over £10,000 or currency equivalent should be paid to Maitland by electronic means on or before the Settlement Day, with settlements in Australian Dollars and Danish Krone being due one day prior to settlement date. Before a transaction is placed, Maitland may at its discretion require cleared funds (unless otherwise agreed by Maitland).

10.5 No interest will be paid on funds held prior to Investment.

10.6 Shares that have not been paid for cannot be redeemed.

10.7 The ACD reserves the right to cancel a purchase deal if settlement is overdue, with any loss arising on such cancellations being the liability of the applicant.

10.8 For postal applications payment in full must accompany the instruction. At the ACD's discretion, payment for large purchases of Shares may be made by telegraphic transfer.

10.9 Redemption proceeds will only be made payable via electronic means to the account holder, unless the portfolio is an ISA account and the funds are being transferred to a new ISA plan manager, in which case a cheque will be issued to the new plan manager.

11. Subscription Orders & Cancellation Rights

- 11.1 Upon receipt of the completed Application Form and the full subscription amount, the Administrator on behalf of the Fund will register the Shares in the name of the applicant(s).
- 11.2 Cancellation rights may be available to you if you have invested as a result of advice from a professional adviser. If you have invested via a professional adviser you may be entitled to cancellation rights within 14 days of receiving from us notice of your right to cancel.
- 11.3 If you have the right to cancel and you wish to do so you should return the completed notice to the Administrator at the address detailed on the notice of cancellation rights within 14 days of receipt.
- 11.4 If the applicant enacts their cancellation rights and the value of those holdings has fallen, the applicant will be liable for any shortfalls.
- 11.5 ISA Investors receive cancellation rights only on the first subscription. Any initial ISA subscription cancelled within 14 days of receipt of a cancellation notice will not count as a subscription within your ISA for the tax year in question.
- 11.6 Where a direct debit exists and the Investor wishes to cancel it, the Investor should cancel the instruction with their bank and must inform Maitland. Failure to notify Maitland will result in the Investor being liable for any shortfall where a trade occurs.
- 11.7 We reserve the right to return the cancellation proceeds by cheque or bank transfer (CHAPS or BACS). Proceeds returned by bank transfer will only be returned to the account from which the original subscription was received.

12. Instructions & Communications

- 12.1 All notices, reports, statements, documents and communications will be sent at the risk of the applicant(s) by ordinary mail or, where otherwise specified by applicable UK legislation or the Fund's constitutional documents, by registered mail to the address of the first-named applicant unless otherwise specified by the applicant(s) in writing.
- 12.2 All notices, reports, statements, documents and communications sent to the address of the first-named applicant are deemed to have been effected to all the applicants on the date sent to the first-named applicant's address.
- 12.3 Instructions may be given by letter or facsimile and are at the risk of the applicant(s). The applicant(s) assume(s) all risks and in particular those arising from delays in delivery and once received the applicant(s) should review the communication for accuracy and contact the administrator immediately if they identify any inaccuracies.
- 12.4 The applicant(s) specifically agree(s) that, where they give(s) instructions by fax, they hold Maitland fully indemnified from and against all liabilities, losses, costs, actions, proceedings, claims and demands which may be incurred by or brought or made against the Fund or Maitland directly or indirectly from having acted upon such instructions.
- 12.5 If the Application Form is sent by fax, the original must also be sent to Maitland immediately thereafter by post.
- 12.6 A fax authority is not sufficient for notifications of change of name, address, notification of death, deed of pledges and appointment of an attorney or any other notification or instruction where original documentation is required to be sent by post to Maitland.
- 12.7 All communications shall be in the English language.

13. Market Timing & Suspicious Transactions

- 13.1 Maitland shall not permit transactions which it knows to be or has reason to believe to be related to late trading or market timing practices as defined in FCA Rules and shall report those transactions to the FCA.
- 13.2 Maitland will also liaise with the National Crime Agency (NCA) and the FCA where it has reason to suspect money laundering, fraud or financial crime is being perpetrated on a client's account. Restrictions may be placed on the account without referral to the client to stop potentially unlawful activity.

14. Telephone Recording

- 14.1 All calls to customer services at Maitland are recorded for training and monitoring purposes. The dealing instruction confirmed over the telephone is a legally binding contract. Any disputes that arise are assessed by listening to the call in question to identify possible discrepancies.

15. Variation/replacement of these Terms & Conditions

- 15.1 Maitland reserves the right at any time to modify these Terms and Conditions. Maitland will update its website www.maitlandgroup.com with amended Terms and Conditions.
- 15.2 Any fundamental changes will be notified to Shareholders in writing at the point we issue half yearly valuations or distribution vouchers (if applicable). Such modifications shall be deemed to be accepted by the shareholders, if the shareholders do not raise any objection in writing to the proposed amendments, within two weeks from the date of the notification.
- 15.3 If you do not accept the proposed changes you will be able to immediately terminate the Terms and Conditions and we will return the proceeds of your investment to you.

16. Severance

- 16.1 If any provision or clause of these Terms and Conditions is or becomes void or unenforceable in whole or in part for any reason such enforceability or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining Terms and Conditions.

17. Incorporation in Contract

- 17.1 These Terms and Conditions form an integral part of Maitland Application Forms. Each applicant accepts these Terms and Conditions by signing their Application Form.

18. Complaints

- 18.1 The Intermediary shall be responsible for handling all complaints from an Investor relating to its sales or advisory activity.
- 18.2 If an Investor has a complaint in connection with the Fund(s), the documentation relating to the Fund(s) or transactions carried out by it, they should address it to the Compliance Director at Maitland Institutional Services Limited, Hamilton Centre, Rodney Way, Chelmsford, Essex, CM1 3BY or phone Maitland on 01245 398950.
- 18.3 Upon receipt of your complaint Maitland will issue an acknowledgement letter along with a copy of our Complaints Procedures. If you are not satisfied with the outcome you have the right to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service either by phone on 0207 964 1000, by email at complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk or by post to Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, London, E14 9SR.

19. Compensation

- 19.1 If we cannot meet our obligations you may be entitled to compensation from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (the 'Scheme'). Your entitlement to compensation depends on the type of business and the circumstances of your claim.
- 19.2 Most types of business are covered for claims of £50,000 per person per firm. The amounts of compensation may change from time to time and you should check your entitlement with the Scheme. Further information about compensation arrangements is available from the Scheme.
